RE: The previously sent Motion

Dated: 7/19/06

On July 5th, 2006 a motion requesting permission to reply to the response put forth by Carroll et al (Copy of motion included within) was mailed through the DCC prison mail service. It has been two weeks and no response has been forthcoming. The reliability of the mail service here leaves much to be desired, so some notification of whether the motion was recieved would be greatly appreciated.

I have combed the Rules and Procedures, and searched for precedent, and at most it implies that a reply or traverse may be ordered, which is why I am leary of mailing said traverse unless it will → be well recieved. Thank you for your time.

MOTION FOR PERMISSION TO REPLY

Comes Now the petitioner, Robert "Wes" Warrington, pro se, moves this Honorable Court to grant permission to the petitioner to reply to the respondent's answer for the following reasons:

1. The respondent has made numerous clerical errors, i.e. Petitioner and co-defendant's names switched in key elements, Dates wrong. These errors, while seemingly small, are in reality great in the sense of the enormity of the consequences: continued Civil Death for the petitioner and his brother.
2. The petitioner's reply will be short and will only address those points in which the respondent has erred in either fact or opinion.

- 3 The petitioner's reply will in no way be an attempt to "sand-bag" or restate what has already been put before this Honorable Court.

Therefore, petitioner requests permission from the Honorable Court to reply to the respondent's answer.
